

Reading is to the mind
what exercise
is to the body.

What to Expect

Grades are based on...

- Tests and quizzes
- Book report presentations
- Class Projects
- Oral Reports
- Homework
- Class Participation

During this course, you will read novels (The Call of the Wild by Jack London and The True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle by Avi), short stories, non-fiction pieces, poetry, and plays. You will be required to complete individual and group projects.

Your spelling and vocabulary words will be taken from the various stories read in class or from common Greek and Latin root words. There will be an emphasis on understanding roots, prefixes, and suffixes to help you become a better reader and prepare you for the PSSA English Language Arts test in the spring. You are expected to be prepared for class, complete all assignments, and participate in class.

Homework Policy

All homework assignments are given a point value. Assignments handed in late will receive only partial credit.

Needed Materials

- Three-ring binder
- White t-shirt (for second marking period book report project)

Something Extra

You will start each marking period with five bonus points. In order to keep these points, you need to abide by a few rules. First, you must come to class prepared (i.e., pencils, worksheets, etc.). A point will be taken each time you need to borrow or get a second copy of an item from Ms. Schadel. Points will also be lost for asking to use the restroom during instructional time.
